

MULO

Oslo, Norway

Biography:

Mulo is a French-born DJ and producer based in Oslo, whose artistry is rooted in a deep connection with rhythm and primal beats. Originally a skilled percussionist, Mulo seamlessly bridges his musical origins with his current mastery of african-inspired electronic music while weaving in hints of organic and progressive house. His sound is a vibrant fusion of cultural flavors and contemporary club energy, enhanced by his signature live percussion elements, which add a distinct and immersive dimension to his music.

Spanning over a decade, Mulo's journey has taken him to stages shared with some of the most respected figures in the scene, including BadBox, Sparrow & Barbossa, Pippi Ciez, La Santa, and Djuma Soundsystem. His unique ability to elevate any lineup with his signature sound has earned him recognition as both a standout solo artist and a sought-after collaborator.

Since 2016, Mulo has been a foundational member and resident of Epiphany Oslo, a cornerstone of the city's nightlife, as well as a key figure behind Iziki Oslo. His sets are celebrated for their magnetic energy, blending deep, driving beats with intricate, tribal and groovy percussion that resonates on a visceral level.

Mulo's dedication to his craft and his connection to the pulse of the dancefloor have made him an integral force, whether spinning at intimate venues or commanding larger crowds. He captivates audiences with his ability to distill a clever mix of genres and rhythms into an unforgettable sonic journey.

As his career continues to evolve towards production, Mulo remains steadfast committed to pushing boundaries, celebrating culture, and crafting immersive musical experiences. He is not just a DJ but a storyteller, delivering sets that resonate long after the music fades.
